Nov 04 Arrival Denpasar (D)

Welcome to Bali, Indonesia!

On your arrival at the Ngurah Rai International airport of Denpasar, your Tour Guide awaits you at the arrival gate with your group name written on a paging board. Meet and greet with him/her, and he will escort you to your meeting point for transfer to your hotel. Balinese girls will welcome you with a flower lei before leaving the airport for Nusa Dua.

In the afternoon, drive through the southern hills towards one of the holiest as well as iconic temples in Bali, the cliff temple Uluwatu. This temple dates back to the 11th century, built by a Hindu's priest from East Java during his pilgrimage to the island. From the temple, you can enjoy the sunset scenery and vast views of the Indian Ocean, as well as the performance of a Balinese traditional Fire & Kecak Dance.

Leaving Uluwatu, your trip today will be closed with a superb BBQ seafood dinner at Jimbaran Bay, known as the center of seafood BBQ cafes, with strolling Batakos singers and some dance performances. Overnite at Nusa Dua Beach Hotel.

Nov 05 Denpasar → Yogyakarta (B/L/D)

After early breakfast, meet your tour guide at the lobby for transfer to the airport to board your flight to the heart of Javanese culture, Yogyakarta.

Upon your arrival at Yogyakarta's airport, meet and greet with our local representative. Then, continue to the magnificent and well known Buddhist sanctuary, Borobudur Temple Complex, including Mendut Temple where you may see the giant Buddha statue. Back to the city to visit the 17th century Sultan Palace (called Kraton). This sultanate is the only remaining active sultanate in the country and plays a major role in the lives of Yogyakarta residents. From the palace, a visit also is made to the nearby Taman Sari Water Castle, once part of the palace complex, a water park for the royal family.

Tonight's dinner will be served at the Prince House (Ndalem Ngabean) or at Purawisata Restaurant with Ramayana Ballet performance. Accommodations at the Sheraton Mustika Hotel, Yogyakarta.

Nov 06 Truly Yogyakarta Experience (B)

Today's activity will bring you into Javanese cultural lives. The activity starts with wayang characterization figures at the hotel. You will be made-up (select one of the characters) and dressed in wayang figures clothes. The tour then continues with a trishaw transfer to the village of Kampung Batik Manguan where more comprehensive activities including learning gamelan, visiting a local school (available on morning excursion only, and NOT on holidays), planting rice, plowing rice fields conclude with tea time before heading back to your hotel.

In the afternoon, proceed to visit the biggest Hindu's shrine, Prambanan Temple, also known as the 'virgin slender temple'. The temple holds a very close story with the Ramayana story and is comprises of three main temples, symbol of the Hindu's trinity Brahma, Vishnu & Shiva.

(Optionally, you can enjoy the Ramayana Ballet Dance Performance based on a set schedule at an open air amphitheater within the temple complex)

Nov 07 Yogyakarta → Denpasar (B/L/D)

Check out of your hotel, you then will be transferred to the airport to catch your flight to Denpasar. Upon arrival at Denpasar, meet with your guide for transfer to Ubud. After checking in, lunch is served at your hotel. The rest of the day is free, as your program will be continued in the late afternoon where you will see the performance of a Balinese traditional dance. Afterward, stroll through Ubud's heart, famous Monkey Forest Street, and have your dinner at the Lotus Café.

Accommodations at the Alila Hotel, Ubud.

Nov 08 Kintamani – Safari under the Star (B/L/D)

Today, you will drive up to Penelokan, the mountainous resort at Kintamani to enjoy your lunch at the local restaurant with a magnificent view over the mountain and volcanic Lake of Batur. On your way back to the hotel, visit Kehen Temple, an ancient temple. This temple holds some old inscriptions and is considered as the holiest temple in the Bangli region.

In the late afternoon, you will be picking up at the hotel lobby and transferred to the Taro Elephant Park to enjoy the night safari on the back of elephants with a night show in the park. Dinner will be served at the park's restaurant before heading back to your hotel.

Nov 09 Ubud – Denpasar → USA (B/L)

After checking out of your hotel, this morning you will travel through villages to the west coast of the island to visit the sea temple of Tanah Lot. Afterwards, drive back to Sanur to have your lunch at a local restaurant.

After lunch, you will be transferred to the airport for your connecting flight via Hong Kong towards San Francisco.
